BEKINS

A designated ProMover is a moving company that meets the highest business standards and has passed a rigorous review of practices required by the American Moving & Storage Association (AMSA). Bekins Van Lines has met all of the requirements and standards set by the AMSA and has achieved the designation of ProMover.

The ProMover program is designed to promote ethical principles and work in partnership with federal and state authorities to mitigate unacceptable or unlawful business practices. A ProMover agrees to abide by the AMSA strict Code of Ethics. The ProMover designation provides you with additional assurance you are selecting a company with the highest integrity and commitment to customer satisfaction.

The ProMover logo is an identifiable symbol of quality. When you see this symbol, you'll have the confidence and comfort that your belongings are in the good hands of a ProMover. You'll have piece of mind knowing that your goods will be packed, transported and delivered in full compliance with applicable regulations and under the conditions of their contract. Well informed consumers look for the ProMover logo when selecting a moving company to handle their relocation.

Bekins is a ProMover that has also earned the highest A+ rating from the Better Business Bureau (BBB) for customer satisfaction. For over 115 years, Bekins has been the trusted van line and the best choice for moving services.
